These generally use the proven GY6 150cc - 200cc engines, are much bigger than any of the intermediate machines and may be too big for smaller riders. These ATVs are comparable in size to most 300cc machines offered by name brand manufacturers. They will fit older riders from about 12 years and up. This is also a good beginner adult size unit.

PNP may not apply to every engine, simply because of so many different engines out there. PNP may only apply to certain GY6 engines, or 150cc monkey-bike engines. If you have modified your engine a lot (w/ major customer parts), it may not be applicable as PNP. In many cases, the user will need to do some basic tuning after correct installations.
