Art of Satoshi Kon by Satoshi Kon, Hardcover | Barnes & Noble®

Satoshi Kon is my favorite animator and artist and this book is a fantastic look at his work from art school to his final unfinished film. It also includes storyboards from his final short film. It's interesting to see how Kon was able to map out scenes in storyboards with extreme detail. All the drawings are beautifully printed on high quality paper.

Satoshi Kon's animation career began in the early '90s, with one of his final animated works being Paprika in 2006. Though Kon proved himself an excellent storyteller and director across his body of work, it's the horror, psychological mystery and deep subtext that continue to captivate the minds of viewers today, leaving each and every one with a cerebral aftereffect that warps our reality.
