Sefer Hamitzvot is a work by the 12th-century rabbi, philosopher and physician Maimonides. While there are various other works titled similarly, the title "Sefer Hamitzvot" without a modifier refers to Maimonides' work. It is a listing of all the commandments of the Torah, with a brief description for each. It originally appeared in Arabic under the title "Kitab al-Fara'id", and was translated by the Provençal rabbi Moses ibn Tibbon as well as by ibn Hasdai, in the 13th century. A new ...
