The Case Of The Earl

On May 21, 1983, Earl Washington, a 22-year- old black man, was arrested in Warrenton, Virginia, on an unrelated case—burglary and malicious wounding. During two days of questioning by law enforcement officials from the Virginia State Police, Culpeper County, and Fauquier County, he confessed to the Williams murder (and to three other rapes). 3

Earl of Oxford's case 23 ER 485 is a foundational case for the common law world, that held equity takes precedence over the common law. The Lord Chancellor held: "The Cause why there is Chancery is, for that Mens Actions are so divers and infinite, that it is impossible to make any general Law which may aptly meet with every particular Act, and not fall in some Circumstances." The judgment stresses that the legal position for chancery is tempered to dealing with voids in the common law, a princ
