Porn loses its alluring power as we experience deeper relationships with real people. Only real relationships can make us feel wanted and affirmed. Only real people that know us can look us in the eye and listen to us, affirm us, love us, fight with us, cry with us and laugh with us. This is God at work in real people reaching out to love us.

What is the Antidote to Porn? - Love Thy Neighborhood

Porn is a deceptive counterfeit of an important human need which is connection, healthy attachment. Porn drives the man into hiding, like Adam and Eve did when they ate the forbidden fruit. Attachment with Christ is the ultimate antidote, and the author beautifully describes exactly how to do that.
