Narrative Art and Poetry in the Books of Samuel

A full interpretation based on stylistic and structural analysis, Volume III. Throne and City (II Sam. 2-8 & 21-24)

BRILL Narrative Art and Poetry in the Books of Samuel is the vast undertaking to interpret all the material in Samuel. Everything that the text has to offer can only be understood and appreciated to the full, and its interpretation can only lay claim to full validity by means of an integral view. Therefore the author has developed a textual model which regards and covers the composition of the Samuel books as a hierarchy of twelve levels. This volume bridges the gap between volume I and II. Throne and City carries on the work according to the principles of a sound and independent narratology. It differentiates II Sam. 2-5:5 (Act IX) and 5:6-18 (Act X) as the two final phases of David's long march to pow

Mastering the Art of French Cooking

Рипол Классик Anyone can cook in the French manner anywhere, wrote Mesdames Beck, Bertholle, and Child, with the right instruction. And here is the book that, for forty years, has been teaching Americans how. Mastering the Art of French Cooking is for both seasoned cooks and beginners who love good food and long to reproduce at home the savory delights of the classic cuisine, from the historic Gallic masterpieces to the seemingly artless perfection of a dish of spring-green peas. This beautiful book, with more than one hundred instructive illustrations, is revolutionary in its approach because: It leads the cook infallibly from the buying and handling of raw ingredients, through each essential step of a recipe, to the final creation of a delicate confection. It breaks down the classic cuisine into a logical sequence of themes and variations rather than presenting an endless and diffuse catalogue of recipes; the focus is on key recipes that form the backbone of French cookery and lend themselves to an infinite number of elaborations bound to increase anyone's culinary repertoire.

Draw and Write Journal

For Pre-K to Grade 2 with Two Draw Boxes Per Page

Writing is one of the most beneficial things that your child can do. For children just starting out as well as older children, it helps to improve many things such as their vocabulary, spelling, sentence construction and even sentence structure. It is a way for them to gather their inner thoughts and give them an outlet for their feelings and dreams. The drawing area on each page can help to develop hand-eye coordination and word/picture association. These journals are laid out like the ones your children use at school. Kids that are kindergarten aged will love to practice their writing and storytelling skills by filling up the pages with their own ideas. This journal consists of 102 8.5"x11" pages. Fifty of the pages are made up of six primary lines that are comprised of a top solid line, middle dotted guide line, and bottom solid line where your child can practice their upper and lowercase letters and forming short sentences. The page also has a two small boxes to draw in. The other fifty are blank pages located on the opposite side of the draw and write pages allowing your child to be able to draw in marker without worrying about bleed-through. However, I would suggest putting a scrap sheet of paper in between the pages if you are planning on using marker just in case. The blank side of each page can easily be used as additional space for drawing, writing, or doodling if you wish. The extra two pages are the introduction pages where they can write their name. The book also has a full color glossy paperback cover that helps it to be durable and long lasting for your children. This book can be a perfect gift for many occasions due to its versatile nature such as:- Achievement Awards- Birthday Gifts- Stocking Stuffers- Gifts for young grandchildren- Student Appreciation.
