Ltd.* The subject "Irrigation Engineering" has assumed importance since last 30 to 40 years. Continued increase in population, particular in developing countries, at a very fast rate has caused scarcity of food. The real answer to food problem, is increased production of food articles; which is possible only by artificial irrigation of fields. India has a very large potential for irrigation, because area and water resources both are abundantly available. Abundance of area for irrigation and availability of lot of water resources are probably the reasons that most of the early irrigation practices and theories were developed in India. There is lot of variations in rainfall in different regions of India. Some of the areas have very little rainfall insufficient to grow any crop. Other areas have sufficient rainfall but its distribution is not as required by the crops. Scanty rainfall and erratic distribution both necessitate artificial irrigation. The purpose of this book is to present the subject in most concise form. Simplicity of language is the main feature of the book. The book is completely in MKS units and covers the syllabus of all the Indian Universities, State Technical Boards, and A.M.I.E. (India) examinations. The book should be equally useful to practicing Engineers as reference book. Examples of almost all the important irrigation works have been solved and then illustrated in neat drawing charts. Khosla's Charts, Lacey's and Garret diagrams all are in MKS units. Rajsons Publications Pvt. Ltd. Every effort was made to eliminate printing errors. I would appreciate if printing errors are brought to my notice and Suggestions to bring about improvements in the book are most welcome. I am thankful to all my friends who have rendered great help by their valuable suggestions. In last I am thankful to Shri R.K. Jain, Prop. Standard Book House, without whose efforts this venture would not have reached the readers.
